

Export Control Compliance

ASSESSMENT FORM - (THIS IS NOT AN "End User Certificate")

Our products are components, which are not listed on the German export control lists in their general description. They can, however, be listed as a component of a listed application. As part of Export Control Compliance, Moog Rekofa require the below information. The requirement is based on our export legislation and designed to ascertain if there is a requirement for export licencing.

PLEASE NOTE:

From the information supplied we will verify whether an export licence is required and request, if necessary, further documentation.
